The MIW Group Presents: "Radio's Entrepreneurs...Starting Your Own Business & Networking" at the 2009 NAB Fall Radio Show

Boston, MA (August 19, 2009): The Mentoring and Inspiring Women in Radio (MIW) Group will present a special session, entitled "Radio's Entrepreneurs...Starting Your Own Business & Networking" on Wednesday, September 23rd, 2009 from 1-2:15pm at the NAB Fall Radio Show at the Philadelphia Convention Center.

The special panel will consist of several leading industry entrepreneurs, including Ruth Presslaff, President of Presslaff Interactive, Kay Olin, President of Local Focus Radio (Atlanta), and Dennis Jones, President of Radio Jones, LLC.

The group will discuss how they started and continue to reinvent themselves in their individual business in the radio industry, as well as provide useful advice and tips on what it's like to run their own business. In addition, the panel will discuss networking opportunities that will help the corporately connected, the one-person shop, and everyone in between.

The session will be moderated by Deborah Parenti, Radio Ink magazine Vice President/General Manager and MIW member.

About the MIW Radio Group: The MIWs are dedicated to using our influence and resources to support women in radio to develop strong management and leadership skills. The MIWs are equally committed to advocating the advancement of women to senior positions in radio companies and corporations.
